

ARIZONA WEEKLY JOURNAL-MINER.

The Pioneer Paper of Arizona.

PRESCOTT, ARIZONA, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 14, 1903.

Thirty-Ninth Year.

A NEW FOREMAN.

Telegraphic News

VANSANT INAUGURATED.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 7.—In the presence of the state legislature, Senator R. Vansant was today inaugurated as governor of Minnesota. His biennial message deals exhaustively with the controversy between the state of Minnesota and the Northern Securities company to prevent an alleged merger of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific railways. The message declares that the state will continue to do all in its power to defeat the measure; and that the "Northern Securities company is the most ingenious scheme yet devised to give existence to a transportation monopoly and stifle competition."

HIGH WIND AT OMAHA.

Half a Hundred Buildings Damaged and City in Darkness.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 7.—Probably half a hundred buildings were more or less damaged by a gale which struck Omaha last night. The wind did not abate with the morning but has continued to blow at a furious velocity during the day. Fires are reported in all directions. The city was in darkness the latter part of the night because of the damage to the electric light circuits.

ACQUITTED ON ATTEMPTED MURDER.

San Francisco, Jan. 7.—The trial of Thomas H. Williams, Jr., and Truxton Hale on the charge of attempting to murder F. M. Mariotti, was ended tonight, the jury bringing in a verdict of not guilty. The defendants made a plea of self defense claiming that Mariotti had assaulted them before the shooting.

SHOWED REMARKABLE NERVE.

Camden, N. J., Jan. 7.—Paul Woodward, aged 17, was hanged in Camden jail today. Woodward was apparently not much concerned by the hanging at the bar of the gallows and showed remarkable nerve. The crime for which he paid the penalty was the murder last October of John Coffin, aged eleven, and Price Jennings, aged fourteen. Woodward poisoned the boys supposedly for the purpose of robbery.

BLIZZARD IN ILLINOIS.

Bloomington, Ill., Jan. 7.—An old time blizzard is raging throughout Central Illinois with the heaviest snow fall of the winter. Railroads are reporting traffic delayed owing to heavy drifts. The mercury is falling rapidly, and the blizzard promises to be followed by extremely cold weather.

LORD AND LADY CURZON.

Delhi, India, Jan. 7.—Viscount Lord Curzon and Lady Curzon, the duke and duchess of Connaught and the duke and duchess of Cornwall, arrived in the Durbar arena. Contingents of troops from all parts of greater India were present.

FIGHTING ON THE BRINKS.

San Diego, Jan. 7.—When the Times-Tribune trial opened this morning Judge Torrance said that too much time had been wasted by the plaintiff's attorneys in their rebuttal testimony. He suggested that it be curtailed hereafter. The plaintiff then continued the introduction of rebuttal testimony.

PARDEE GOVERNOR.

Inaugurated Today With Great Eclat and Brilliant Ceremony.

Sacramento, Jan. 7.—With just a semblance of sunshine this morning provided to the capital city making it a pleasant day for the inauguration of a governor of a great state, Governor Pardee was inducted into office. Shortly before noon, Governor Gage and Governor-elect Pardee met and accompanied their staffs, Chief Justice Beatty and state officials, and executive committee proceeded to the capital grounds under escort of troops.

TOWN IN DANGER.

Sacramento, Jan. 8.—A fierce fire is raging in the Cross City. The entire business portion of the town is threatened with destruction as the wind is blowing a gale.

STATEHOOD CONSIDERED.

After Some Discussion, on the Free Anthracite Coal Bill.

Washington, Jan. 8.—When the senate met today some minor bills were passed. Senator Aldrich then addressed the senate on the resolutions offered by Vest, of Missouri, directing the finance committee to report the bill removing the duty on anthracite coal. No action was taken on the resolution, and at 2 o'clock it went over until tomorrow. Consideration of the statehood bill was then resumed.

STOCK FOR PHILIPPINES.

Washington, Jan. 8.—The senate committee on the Philippines, today, took favorable action on the amendment to the sundry civil appropriation bill, appropriating two and one-half million dollars for the purchase of draught animals for the Philippines. The measure was prepared in response to a suggestion by Governor Taft to supply stock to the place of that destroyed by disease.

JANUARY DIVIDENDS.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 8.—Between $30,000,000 and $40,000,000 will be paid out by the Chicago banks this month in the way of dividends and interest on stocks and bonds and mortgages. The banking circles are looking forward to the payment of the money known as the January dividend, and it is expected to be larger this month than ever before in the history of the city. The year 1902 was such a good one commercially that few corporations, private or public, were obliged to default or defer payment of their dividends.

ROBEY AT WORK.

Washington, Jan. 8.—Delegated Robey has introduced a bill for a government building at Las Vegas to cost $225,000, and $25,000 for the site. Senator Foraker is guarding the omnibus statehood bill.

OH! HOW IT BLOWS.

Kansas City, Jan. 7.—A sixty-mile gale prevailed in the part of the state for the past twenty-four hours. All traffic is crippled.

A GALE ON THE LAKES.

West Superior, Wis., Jan. 7.—A northwest gale struck the lakes country early today accompanied by snow and the drifting snow is interfering very badly with railroad traffic.

RAILROADS HAMPERED.

Lacrosse, Wis., Jan. 7.—A severe blizzard has been raging here all night and still continues. Railroads are considerably hampered by the storm.

SANTA FE OFFICERS ELECTED.

New York, Jan. 7.—At the annual meeting today of the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad directors all the outgoing officers were re-elected.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Washington, Jan. 7.—In the house today the bill to promote the efficiency of the Philippine constabulary was made special order for tomorrow. The Hawaiian coinage bill passed without discussion.

NEW MAN IN CHARGE.

Von Sternberg Succeeds Holleben Temporarily in Washington.

Berlin, Jan. 8.—Baron Speck von Sternberg, the German consul general at Calcutta, has been appointed in charge at Washington during the absence of Dr. Von Holleben on sick leave. Chancellor von Bülow regards the business at Washington so important at the present time as to require special attention from an ambassador. The inference naturally follows that Baron von Sternberg will succeed Dr. Von Holleben as ambassador.

CORNERING MARKET TABOODED.

Chicago Court Decides That Settlement Can't Be Forced on Cornered Market.

Chicago, Jan. 8.—The appellate court today in a sweeping decision sustained an injunction issued by Justice Cuyler against the eight board of trade members, charged with operating a corner of markets, restraining the market against "cornering" the market. The court holds that under the law of the state, dealers can't be forced to settle trades upon the basis of an artificial value created by "cornering" the market.

COMMUNITED VIOLENCE.

Non-Union Men Continue to Produce Testimony Before Commission to This Effect.

Philadelphia, Jan. 8.—Counsel for the non-union miners continued to call witnesses before the coal strike commission today. Mrs. Lily Steiner, whose husband worked during the strike testified to an assault made upon her husband by the strikers. She said her husband was internally injured by a beating administered to him. Half a dozen other witnesses also testified to having been beaten very severely because they worked during the strike.

CASTRO MODIFIES OPINION.

Willing to Submit Disputed Questions to Hague Tribunal.

Washington, Jan. 8.—Minister Bowen transmitted to the state department today the reply from President Castro touching upon the arbitration proposal. As heretofore, President Castro expresses his willingness to submit the matter to arbitration, and in addition to his former communication he is now willing to recognize the propriety of submitting the dispute to the Hague tribunal, something that he has not up to this point been willing to do.

DOINGS IN CONGRESS.

Washington, Jan. 9.—When the house met today, Holloway, chairman of the committee on military affairs, reported the army appropriation bill. He gave notice that he would call it up on Monday. The speaker laid before the house the resignation of Latham, of Texas. The judiciary committee announced that it had appointed Henry of Texas, to fill the vacancy on the committee. This being Friday the house then went into the committee of the whole to consider private pension bills.

KILLED IN MULBERRY ALLEY.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 9.—Andrew Overick, proprietor of a public boarding house, also a broker and money lender, was found dying with a broken skull in Mulberry alley last night. Overick always carried large sums of money on his person and it is believed the robbers made a rich haul.

WHOLESALE PARDONING.

San Rafael, Cal., Jan. 9.—This morning at the San Quentin penitentiary fourteen prisoners were liberated who had been granted a full pardon by Governor Gage before the expiration of his term of office.

MISSOURI SENATORSHIP.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 9.—The contest for Missouri senate seats between Senator Vest is on in full force. The political lieutenants of William J. Stone declare they have enough votes pledged to nominate the ex-governor on the first ballot, but the opposing faction assert with equal vigor that the Stottines have made a serious error in their counting of noses and that when the balloting is begun it will be found that there are other entries, and strong ones, too, in the race for the top.

HONOR DEAD KING.

Rome, Jan. 9.—The twenty-fifth anniversary of the death of King Edward the seventh, was observed here today by a pilgrimage to his tomb in the pantheon. The procession was two miles in length. Over thirty thousand persons participated in the pilgrimage including one thousand veterans of the war of independence.

ROBEY AT WORK.

Washington, Jan. 8.—Delegated Robey has introduced a bill for a government building at Las Vegas to cost $225,000, and $25,000 for the site. Senator Foraker is guarding the omnibus statehood bill.

OH! HOW IT BLOWS.

Kansas City, Jan. 7.—A sixty-mile gale prevailed in the part of the state for the past twenty-four hours. All traffic is crippled.

CERTIFICATE REQUIRED.

Toledo, Ohio, Jan. 8.—The coal situation in Toledo has reached a point where physicians' certificates are required by dealers before they will sell even a ton of coal. The certificate must show that there is illness in the home of the would be purchaser, and that coal is a safeguard to the patient.

CONSTABULARY BILL.

Washington, Jan. 8.—In pursuance with agreement made yesterday the house immediately after convening today, entered upon the consideration of the Philippine constabulary bill.

NEBRASKA BANK ROBBERED.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 8.—A special to a paper from Louisville, Neb., says: The Bank of Louisville was broken into and robbed of $4,200 early this morning. The robbers drilled into the safe from the rear.

HE WAS YOUNG.

Camden, N. J., Jan. 9.—In the county jail and in the presence of two local named John Coffin and Woodward, the youthful murderer who has been confined in the jail for the past two months, paid the death penalty on the gallows.

BUT WAS HANGED FOR MURDER JUST THE SAME.

Camden, N. J., Jan. 9.—In the county jail and in the presence of two local named John Coffin and Woodward, the youthful murderer who has been confined in the jail for the past two months, paid the death penalty on the gallows.

TESTIMONY WILL BE OFFERED IT.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 10.—The testimony which will be offered it will be demonstrated that there was no merit in the demand for a twenty per cent increase upon the prices paid during the year 1901, to employees performing contract work. It will be shown that the rates paid were larger than is paid to bituminous miners for similar work.

DEMANDS NOT GRANTED.

Topeka, Jan. 9.—The committee representing the conductors and brakemen of the entire system, in session here, were today notified that their demand for 20 per cent wage increase was out of the question. The officials declare that such a raise is simply impossible.

HOLZENBERG RECALLED.

German Government Thinks He Did Not Fully Inform It.

Berlin, Jan. 9.—Ambassador von Holleben's leave of absence from Washington is pretty generally received here as being virtually a recall, due to it is said, to the dissatisfaction of the government with his management of the Venezuelan affairs. This is asserted without reserve by important circles. The government feels that it was not fully informed by the Washington embassy respecting President Roosevelt's attitude toward the arbitration proposal and regarding the United States' policy in the Venezuelan dispute.

SELLING WHISKY TO INDIANS.

Gallup, N. M., Jan. 9.—Lucas Urniech, a saloonkeeper, and Paddy Lavin, a miner, were arrested by United States deputy marshals for selling liquor to Indians. Urniech waived examination and gave $500 bond for his appearance at court in March. In default of bond, Lavin will be taken to Albuquerque tomorrow.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Albuquerque, Jan. 9.—Charles Poirrey, a wealthy resident of Trinidad, Colorado, met with a fatal accident last night at the depot by falling under the wheels of a passenger train.

AGED MAN ATTEMPTS TO ALIGHT FROM MOVING CAR AND IS KILLED.

Albuquerque, Jan. 9.—After three months search it is believed that Charles White, who was killed by the Burlington train several months ago at Marcus, Texas, were taken to the Mount Carroll county seat last night, where they will be arraigned on a charge of holding up a train. They were traced by shoe bought by one of their men at Dubuque. It develops from the story of one of the robbers that one member of the gang was killed by his own party the night of the holdup.

DOINGS IN CONGRESS.

Washington, Jan. 9.—When the house met today, Holloway, chairman of the committee on military affairs, reported the army appropriation bill. He gave notice that he would call it up on Monday. The speaker laid before the house the resignation of Latham, of Texas. The judiciary committee announced that it had appointed Henry of Texas, to fill the vacancy on the committee. This being Friday the house then went into the committee of the whole to consider private pension bills.

KILLED IN MULBERRY ALLEY.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 9.—Andrew Overick, proprietor of a public boarding house, also a broker and money lender, was found dying with a broken skull in Mulberry alley last night. Overick always carried large sums of money on his person and it is believed the robbers made a rich haul.

WHOLESALE PARDONING.

San Rafael, Cal., Jan. 9.—This morning at the San Quentin penitentiary fourteen prisoners were liberated who had been granted a full pardon by Governor Gage before the expiration of his term of office.

MISSOURI SENATORSHIP.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 9.—The contest for Missouri senate seats between Senator Vest is on in full force. The political lieutenants of William J. Stone declare they have enough votes pledged to nominate the ex-governor on the first ballot, but the opposing faction assert with equal vigor that the Stottines have made a serious error in their counting of noses and that when the balloting is begun it will be found that there are other entries, and strong ones, too, in the race for the top.

HONOR DEAD KING.

Rome, Jan. 9.—The twenty-fifth anniversary of the death of King Edward the seventh, was observed here today by a pilgrimage to his tomb in the pantheon. The procession was two miles in length. Over thirty thousand persons participated in the pilgrimage including one thousand veterans of the war of independence.

ROBEY AT WORK.

Washington, Jan. 8.—Delegated Robey has introduced a bill for a government building at Las Vegas to cost $225,000, and $25,000 for the site. Senator Foraker is guarding the omnibus statehood bill.

OH! HOW IT BLOWS.

Kansas City, Jan. 7.—A sixty-mile gale prevailed in the part of the state for the past twenty-four hours. All traffic is crippled.

HE WAS YOUNG.

Camden, N. J., Jan. 9.—In the county jail and in the presence of two local named John Coffin and Woodward, the youthful murderer who has been confined in the jail for the past two months, paid the death penalty on the gallows.

BUT WAS HANGED FOR MURDER JUST THE SAME.

Camden, N. J., Jan. 9.—In the county jail and in the presence of two local named John Coffin and Woodward, the youthful murderer who has been confined in the jail for the past two months, paid the death penalty on the gallows.

TESTIMONY WILL BE OFFERED IT.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 10.—The testimony which will be offered it will be demonstrated that there was no merit in the demand for a twenty per cent increase upon the prices paid during the year 1901, to employees performing contract work. It will be shown that the rates paid were larger than is paid to bituminous miners for similar work.

DEMANDS NOT GRANTED.

Topeka, Jan. 9.—The committee representing the conductors and brakemen of the entire system, in session here, were today notified that their demand for 20 per cent wage increase was out of the question. The officials declare that such a raise is simply impossible.

HOLZENBERG RECALLED.

German Government Thinks He Did Not Fully Inform It.

Berlin, Jan. 9.—Ambassador von Holleben's leave of absence from Washington is pretty generally received here as being virtually a recall, due to it is said, to the dissatisfaction of the government with his management of the Venezuelan affairs. This is asserted without reserve by important circles. The government feels that it was not fully informed by the Washington embassy respecting President Roosevelt's attitude toward the arbitration proposal and regarding the United States' policy in the Venezuelan dispute.

SELLING WHISKY TO INDIANS.

Gallup, N. M., Jan. 9.—Lucas Urniech, a saloonkeeper, and Paddy Lavin, a miner, were arrested by United States deputy marshals for selling liquor to Indians. Urniech waived examination and gave $500 bond for his appearance at court in March. In default of bond, Lavin will be taken to Albuquerque tomorrow.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Albuquerque, Jan. 9.—Charles Poirrey, a wealthy resident of Trinidad, Colorado, met with a fatal accident last night at the depot by falling under the wheels of a passenger train.

AGED MAN ATTEMPTS TO ALIGHT FROM MOVING CAR AND IS KILLED.

Albuquerque, Jan. 9.—After three months search it is believed that Charles White, who was killed by the Burlington train several months ago at Marcus, Texas, were taken to the Mount Carroll county seat last night, where they will be arraigned on a charge of holding up a train. They were traced by shoe bought by one of their men at Dubuque. It develops from the story of one of the robbers that one member of the gang was killed by his own party the night of the holdup.

DOINGS IN CONGRESS.

Washington, Jan. 9.—When the house met today, Holloway, chairman of the committee on military affairs, reported the army appropriation bill. He gave notice that he would call it up on Monday. The speaker laid before the house the resignation of Latham, of Texas. The judiciary committee announced that it had appointed Henry of Texas, to fill the vacancy on the committee. This being Friday the house then went into the committee of the whole to consider private pension bills.

KILLED IN MULBERRY ALLEY.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 9.—Andrew Overick, proprietor of a public boarding house, also a broker and money lender, was found dying with a broken skull in Mulberry alley last night. Overick always carried large sums of money on his person and it is believed the robbers made a rich haul.

WHOLESALE PARDONING.

San Rafael, Cal., Jan. 9.—This morning at the San Quentin penitentiary fourteen prisoners were liberated who had been granted a full pardon by Governor Gage before the expiration of his term of office.

MISSOURI SENATORSHIP.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 9.—The contest for Missouri senate seats between Senator Vest is on in full force. The political lieutenants of William J. Stone declare they have enough votes pledged to nominate the ex-governor on the first ballot, but the opposing faction assert with equal vigor that the Stottines have made a serious error in their counting of noses and that when the balloting is begun it will be found that there are other entries, and strong ones, too, in the race for the top.

HONOR DEAD KING.

Rome, Jan. 9.—The twenty-fifth anniversary of the death of King Edward the seventh, was observed here today by a pilgrimage to his tomb in the pantheon. The procession was two miles in length. Over thirty thousand persons participated in the pilgrimage including one thousand veterans of the war of independence.

ROBEY AT WORK.

Washington, Jan. 8.—Delegated Robey has introduced a bill for a government building at Las Vegas to cost $225,000, and $25,000 for the site. Senator Foraker is guarding the omnibus statehood bill.

OH! HOW IT BLOWS.

Kansas City, Jan. 7.—A sixty-mile gale prevailed in the part of the state for the past twenty-four hours. All traffic is crippled.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., JAN. 10.—THE non-union men having closed their case the coal companies are opening their side of the controversy today before the coal strike commission.

BUCKING ICE.

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 12.—Following on the heels of the most severe snow storm of the season, yesterday, came the coldest night of the winter in this city.

LIVE STOCK ASSOCIATION.

Convenes in Kansas City Today With Largest Attendance in History.

REBATE ON COAL.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—The ways and means committee recommended a rebate of coal.

COLD AND SHORT OF COAL.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 12.—Zero weather prevailed at Kansas City this morning a fall of eleven and half degrees in the last twelve hours.

CLEVELAND VERY COLD.

Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 12.—The lowest temperature for the winter, four below zero was recorded here today. Frost is severe, and considerable suffering is reported.

LOW TEMPERATURE.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 12.—At seven this morning a temperature of three below zero was registered with little indication of relief. The extreme cold covers Nebraska, western Iowa and South Dakota.

HEWITT VERY LOW.

New York, Jan. 12.—A bulletin given out from the residence of Mayor Abram S. Hewitt early today states that his condition is still very low and unchanged.

CHICAGO, JAN. 12.—THE SPECIAL

jury, which has been called to investigate the conditions responsible for the coal famine continued today to hear evidence which the attorney general and states attorneys secured against the coal operators big deal.

DENY REPORTED PURCHASE.

New York, Jan. 10.—The Standard Oil company, which has been charged with the purchase of the territory of the Beaumont oil field in Texas and the Jennings field in Louisiana, has never sought to do so.

ZERO AT CHICAGO.

Chicago, Jan. 10.—The minimum temperature in Chicago was at zero this morning, since which time it has been slowly moderating.

OTTAWA, JAN. 10.—THE MARCONI

Wireless Telegraph company, of Canada, has given notice of the application to parliament for the passage of incorporation to permit it to transmit and do business all over British North America, the British Isles of Europe and on the Atlantic and Pacific oceans.

CONFERS WITH VON BUELOW.

Berlin, Jan. 10.—Baron von Sternberg, the newly appointed charge d'affaires of Germany, at Washington, conferred with Chancellor von Buelow two hours today. He will be received in an audience by the Emperor on Tuesday or Wednesday and will sail for New York January 20.

A DECIDED FALL.

St. Louis, Jan. 10.—There was a decided fall in temperature throughout last night, and this morning the government thermometer registered 12 degrees above zero.

COLD AT ST. PAUL.

St. Paul, Jan. 10.—With only 4 degrees below zero during the night this city is one of the coldest places in the north-west. The same figures are reported however from LaCrosse, Wis., and Moorhead, Minn.

COLD AND NO FUEL.

Indianapolis, Jan. 10.—The official temperature of two degrees above zero with a coal famine existing in the city is being keenly felt.

SAN DIEGO, JAN. 10.—WITH THE COURT

room packed to the very limit of its standing room capacity, and an immense throng struggling to retain their position in remote parts of the corridors, Samuel M. Shortridge of San Francisco, began the closing argument in the jury case.

JUMPED TO HER DEATH.

St. Louis, Jan. 12.—Fire broke out in a negro lodging house here early today and Mrs. Helen Brown, daughter of Eugene, was killed by jumping from an upper floor.

METAL MARKET.

New York, Jan. 12.—Mexicans, 30 1/4; silver, 48; copper, 12 1/2 1/2.

HOUSE ADJOURNS.

Washington, Jan. 12.—After the adoption of a resolution, introduced by Grosvenor of Ohio, providing for an investigation by the committee on commerce and fisheries into the coal situation, the house today adjourned out of respect to the late Representative Tongue, of Oregon, who died yesterday.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., JAN. 12.—BRIAN

General Wilson again presided at today's session of the anthracite coal commission. Chairman Gray being still confined to his home by illness. Testimony was submitted today as to the wages paid employees. F. H. Anderson, clerk in the coal department of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad, submitted a statement showing that two-thirds of the 12,500 employees have been in the employ of the company from ten to sixteen years.

WILL BUY OFF LEOPOLD.

Salzburg, Austria, Jan. 10.—The family of Archduke Leopold Ferdinand, brother of Crown Prince Louis of Saxony has decided to give him $500,000 provided he will renounce all claims to the estate.

COLD AT ST. PAUL.

St. Paul, Jan. 12.—One degree below zero was the warmest reported here on Sunday. Last night it went down to seven below. Moorhead reports eighteen below and Duluth six below. Fuel is scarce and there is much suffering.

BUCKING ICE.

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 12.—Following on the heels of the most severe snow storm of the season, yesterday, came the coldest night of the winter in this city.

LIVE STOCK ASSOCIATION.